SEES MORE CHARGES

Thinks Smith Will Be Indicted By Grand Jury
On Forgery Counts

BATON ROUGE, La., July 7.—(AP)—District Attorney Dennis J. Sanchez today said he anticipated additional indictments against Dr. James Monroe Smith who will be returned by the parish grand jury as long as it looks as if the charges will go before the forgery of public records.

As the attorney general's grand jury here is expected to present its list of U. S. charges against Sanchez and any other arrests a state wash of all charges is in the offing.

The attorney general said the people would be through with any possible洗 of all charges as soon as the grand jury is through. He also stated mainly in his investigating the state attorney general's office and other state bodies may be held responsible in matters after returning the list to the U. S. San has referred the matter to the point.

In a press conference yesterday, attorney general San said he had no direct evidence of any wrongdoing by San. He presented a list of names of persons he believed were responsible for the charges.

San said he had no evidence to support the charges against San. San has been charged with forgery of public records and with conspiracy to commit forgery of public records.

Automatically Becomes Acting Official When Superior Expires

WASHINGTON, July 7.—(AP)—Claude A. Swanson, 77-year-old secretary of the navy, whose aim was to build up a "big navy" for his country, died today.

Death came at 8:06 a.m. eastern standard time at his Rapidian camp in the Shenandoah National park in Virginia. The navy was advised it resulted from a cerebral hemorrhage yesterday.

He had been at the camp more than a month resting and convalescing from a long illness.

A member of the Roosevelt cabinet since 1933, Swanson followed in the same steps as the same principle which guided him as chairman of the senate armed services committee, to keep the American navy, in a commanding strength, with armaments.

He presented with attention to detail and the detail of the navy department largely to assistant Secretaries Charles Edison and Arthur Wilson D. Leahy, chief of the navy.

Swanson's death Edison automatically became his acting secretary.

Swanson had spent most of the last several summers at the Rapidian camp which is maintained by the marine corps.

It was a favorite summer spot of President Hoover when he was president.

Edison, who was ill for several months, was in bed yesterday, but returned to his duties at the navy department on July 6.

SOLLmann says 55 bodies in 4 nations can wreck Hitler

Former Reich Member Predicts Germany's Downfall From Within

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., July 7.—(AP)—A cabinet minister of the pre-Hitler German Reich predicted today that wise statesmanship on the part of Great Britain, France, Russia and the United States could precipitate a domestic crisis which would force the downfall of the führer's regime.

W. William Sollmann, for 18 years a member of the Reichstag and minister of the interior in the post-war cabinet of Chancellor Stresemann, told the University of Virginia institute of public affairs that many German leaders were convinced the Reich was on the road to catastrophe rather than the road to greater world power.

Sollmann told the institute's foreign affairs section that "unfortunately" forced cooperation between Hitler Germany and her southeastern neighbors would be impossible for financial and political reasons.

On the financial side, he said, the Nazi system had destroyed the basis of free money exchange between Germany and the rest of the world. It had severed the German economic and financial system from countries with free liberal systems of currency.

GETS 35 YEARS FOR RAYVILLE KIDNAPING

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 7.—(AP)—Robert E. Dobbs, who federal agents said had a habit of tying his kidnap victims to a tree, today began serving a 35-year sentence for abducting Earle M. Bazinsky at Rayville, La., in 1935.

Federal agents said the 32-year-old Dobbs of Birmingham admitted four other abductions but was tried only for kidnapping Bazinsky, cotton factor from Vicksburg, Miss.

Grady Milton Byrd, now serving a robbery sentence in Texas, was indicted with Dobbs. United States District Attorney Jim C. Smith said the pair forced Bazinsky to drive from Monroe, La., to Birmingham, where they robbed him and tied him to a tree.

Smith said Dobbs admitted complicity in these kidnappings, too: C. G. Barnett, taken from Corinth, Miss., to Brownsville, Tex., in 1936.

Milton Ruth, Little Rock, taken from St. Louis, Mo., to Harmandale, Mo., in 1936.

Robert F. Shutt, taken from Memphis into Mississippi in 1937.

NOBODY GETS REWARD FOR CATCHING SMITH

BATON ROUGE, La., July 7.—(AP)—Nobody got the $2,750 reward offered for capturing Dr. James Monroe Smith.

The resigned Louisiana State University president, indicted for embezzling school funds, gave himself up at Brockville, Ont., along with his wife whom he had lied to.

State Police Superintendent Louis F. Guerne said the Brockville police advised him they would make no claim for the reward, $2,500 of which was offered by the state and $250 by East Baton Rouge parish.

Smith had telephoned Brockville police to tell them he wanted to surrender but he was arrested on his way to jail.

"Technically," Guerne said, "that was not an arrest because he was already on his way in to surrender when he was picked up."

The addition of the Serb-Croat broadcasts was seen as an effort to put across the French version of world events to Yugoslavia.

MILK RATINGS ARE GIVEN BY HEALTH OFFICE

Dr. Williams Urges Public Help Keep Supply Up To Standards

Dr. G. Douglas Williams, director of the Ouachita parish health department, announced Friday, grades on raw and pasteurized milk being sold in Monroe and West Monroe as of June 1 of this year. Dr. Williams said all dairies and pasteurization plants in the list are inspected regularly by the health department, and he urged the milk consuming public to cooperate with the department in its efforts to insure a clean and wholesome supply of milk for the Twin Cities.

Dr. Williams said further, "It would be a great help to us if the people would refuse to buy milk from anyone except those dealers holding a permit from the health department. For the information of the public, I would like to say that all dairies furnishing milk to the two pasteurization plants on the list also are under the supervision of the health department and are required to maintain the standards set up by the milk ordinance under which we operate and that no milk is allowed to be received by the plants unless it is produced on dairy farms that are under the supervision and meet the sanitary requirements of the health department."

The milk grades released by the department are as follows:

Grade A pasteurized Cloverleaf dairy, Monroe; Cooperative dairies, Monroe.

Grade A raw, G. P. Avant, West Monroe; W. T. Avant and Sons, West Monroe; A. W. Crowell, Monroe.

U. S. MAY USE 'SNOW CRUISER'

Giant Machine Designed To Span Ice Crevasses And Ridges

WASHINGTON, July 7. — (AP) — A giant "snow cruiser" specially designed to span yawning crevasses and jagged ice ridges, may be a major piece of equipment on the government's forthcoming expedition to the Antarctic continent.

Secretary Ikes told reporters yesterday that every effort would be made to start the trip by September 30. Congress has appropriated $340,000 for the expedition, which will make formal claim to a vast segment of the icy regions lying east of Little America.

Details of the snow cruiser, which will rely on tractor treads for mobility, are closely guarded by its designer, Dr. Thomas C. Poulter of Chicago, second-in-command of the Byrd Antarctic expedition in 1933-35.

His recent testimony before a house appropriations sub-committee indicated that the machine is a heavy-duty equipment, possibly a type of plane.

On its deck, Poulter machine would carry a plane, which, by making runs at 300-mile intervals, would cover about 8,000 square miles of known territory during a single summer.

Poulter is scientific director of research foundation of Chicago, a corporate organization affiliated with Armour Institute of Technology.

United States claims to a section of the South Pole region are based on explorations by Byrd and Lincoln Ellsworth. The former has been mentioned as the possible leader of the new expedition, which will make scientific studies as well as plant an American flag over the claimed territory.

SHERIFF TELLS OF CONFESSION BY BURGUNDER

Defendant's Father Lays Groundwork For Undisclosed Defense

PHOENIX, Ariz., July 7. — (UPI) — Robert Burgunder's reputed confession that he killed two automobile salesmen in a mixed evidence through which County Attorney Richard Harless is endeavoring to send the 22-year-old former collegean to the lethal gas chamber.

Harless said three witnesses were to testify. Burgunder admitted he shot Jack Peterkin and Ellis M. Koury. They were Harvey L. Moll, Phoenix newspaperman; Vernon LaMere, deputy sheriff; and Ed Powers, shorthand reporter.

Officers for the young man elicited at the meeting were present. Mrs. M. R. Clegg, vice president, Mrs. W. Powers, Phoenix businesswoman, and reporter Mrs. C. A. Astor and J. H. McElroy, Mrs. J. L. Arment and Mrs. J. W. Powers.

The chief planned a late look at the crime scene and the scene of the killing at the Drew Auto Sales, 1111 N. 14th St. The press was to be excluded, members of the public were to be admitted, and the press was to be excluded.

Harless said three witnesses were to testify. Burgunder admitted he shot Jack Peterkin and Ellis M. Koury. They were Harvey L. Moll, Phoenix newspaperman; Vernon LaMere, deputy sheriff; and Ed Powers, shorthand reporter.

First testimony that Burgunder admitted the killings was presented yesterday by Sheriff Lon Jones, who held the youth related the details while being retained from Tennessee to Phoenix.

Robert M. Burgunder, former Sheriff, was defending his son cross-examined the sheriff on every detail concerning the testimony that the son admitted the killings called them "justified" and unprovoked.

NO WPA STRIKES ARE FEARED HERE

J. T. Bullen, area engineer of WPA with offices in the old postoffice building in Monroe, stated Friday that he did not anticipate labor troubles in his department.

He cited a wire received from J. H. Crutcher which in turn was received from Colonel F. C. Harrington, commissioner of WPA in Washington, D. C. It is as follows:

"In cases where groups of workers stop work in protest against requirement that they work 150 hours per month to earn security wage, it should be explained to them or their representatives that this is a requirement imposed by law and that no official of the work projects administration has any authority to depart from it. Preliminary notice to this effect was required to be given to all workers in accordance with my telegrams of June 19 and July 1. Workers should be informed that decision rests entirely in their hands as to whether they desire to accept employment under the conditions under which the work projects administration can offer such employment. Those who do not desire to accept employment under these conditions and who absent themselves from work for five consecutive working days or longer, shall have their employment terminated. Copies of this telegram shall be posted on all project bulletin boards, and publicity may be given to its provisions in response to inquiries from local press."

ALBANY, N. Y., July 7. — (AP) — New Yorkers paid nearly $2,800 a law for the $600 statutes enacted in the last ten years, a survey disclosed today.

Records of the state comptroller showed the two-house legislature has cost $23,228,463 since 1929.

Data available for comparing New York's "do or don't" business with that of other states indicates its legislative costs are among the highest. If not actually leading.

New York is one of only five states which convene the legislature in regular session annually. Forty-two meet biennially and one—Alabama—every four years.

SPAGHETTI LOAF WILL FEED MANY

This Dish Will Serve Lots Of People At Little Expense

If you like crowds, then prepare to feed them. Try this sturdy spaghetti loaf for inexpensive yet bountiful mass hospitality. The recipe will provide 20 servings.

Spaghetti Loaf

(Serves 20)

One and three-quarters quarts spaghetti, broken into 2-inch pieces. 2 cloves garlic. 1 3/4 pounds American or a sharper cheese. 1 3/8 quarts evaporated milk. 7 eggs. 2 1/2 teaspoons salt. 1 cup parsley finely cut. 1-3 onions finely grated.

Clean and hull strawberries. Chill in refrigerator. Roll out biscuit dough, cut, bake, and allow to cool. Whip cream stiff, add vanilla and sugar and mix well. Spread whipped cream on top of the biscuit, but do not open the biscuit. Place 3 strawberries on cream, and then cover with more cream, and next place another 3 strawberries on top of the cream.

To the juice of the strawberries which gathered while the berries were standing in the refrigerator, add the Jamaica rum or the non-alcoholic rum flavoring. Pour over the shortcake and serve.

Beat eggs in large bowl. To eggs in bowl, add salt, parsley, onion and spaghetti, stirring rapidly to prevent the hot sauce from cooking the beaten eggs. Pour into greased loaf pan. Bake in moderate oven (350 deg. F.) for about one hour.

Billy's Strawberry Shortcake

(Serves 4)

However, if your party is more intimate, try this very special strawberry shortcake recipe from a world famous caterer to men.

One pint heavy cream, 4 drops vanilla extract, 1 teaspoon Jamaica rum or non-alcoholic rum flavoring, 1 teaspoon sugar, 24 large strawberries, enough biscuit dough to make 4 biscuits.

Clean and hull strawberries. Chill in refrigerator. Roll out biscuit dough, cut, bake, and allow to cool. Whip cream stiff, add vanilla and sugar and mix well. Spread whipped cream on top of the biscuit, but do not open the biscuit. Place 3 strawberries on cream, and then cover with more cream, and next place another 3 strawberries on top of the cream.

(One Serving)

Six stalks fresh-picked asparagus, hot, grated Parmesan cheese, 1 small piece fried ham, 1 fried egg, lemon juice, salt and pepper, small piece butter.

Place serving of asparagus on dish. Sprinkle with grated cheese. Dot with butter, add a few drops of lemon juice and season to taste. Place butter on top. Place in hot oven while egg and ham are frying. Remove from oven and place ham and egg on top and serve at once with buttered toast.

Curried Beans

(Serves 4 to 6)

Three cans beans, 1 small onion, 1 tart apple, 1 tablespoon curry powder, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1 can beans.

Chop bacon and fry lightly. Chop onion and apple and fry in the bacon grease. Blend in curry powder and stir well. Then add beans. Simmer about 5 minutes. Serve with bowl of green salad.

Sauteed Slices of canned fish, celery and carrots and hard boiled eggs are always acceptable as small meals on hot days.

EGGS RATE HIGH AS HUMAN FOOD

Classified As Protective Diet; Should Be Cooked Slowly

This is a big butter and egg year. Let's make the most of it. We might begin by learning a few pointers on rating and caring for these essential items in our family menus.

Eggs are tops among protective foods. Every diet must include them. They contain the proteins, important minerals and at least five of the vitamins.

If it's iron you need, you'll find egg yolk to be the outstanding source of it. Eggs are rich also in calcium and phosphorus.

The color of the yolk is not a reliable indication of its food value, because both pale and deeply colored yolks may be equally good sources of vitamins and minerals. Nor has the color of the shell anything to do with the egg quality or food value.

Eggs with white and those with brown shells are equally good. The condition of the shell, not its color, determines its value. Shells free from cracks or other imperfections indicate eggs in best condition. However, if you are going to use eggs at once, a cracked or thin shell will not be dangerous. But if you plan to keep them any time, the shell must be neither thin nor cracked.

If possible, find out how an egg was handled before you buy it. An egg left in a warm nest all day, then kept in a warm place all night, will be fresher at 24 hours than an older egg which has been kept cool.

Put eggs in the refrigerator as soon as they arrive. They do not have to go into the very coldest spot, however. Do not place them near highly scented foods because eggs absorb odors.

If they are soiled when they arrive, wipe them clean with a rough dry cloth or metal sponge, but do not wash them. Water removes the "bloom" of an egg that forms a natural seal for the pores of the shell.

Always cook eggs slowly at moderate heat. High temperature and fast cooking shrink the protein and make the egg tough.

Butter is important in every meal, also. It is an excellent source of vitamin A and some vitamin D. It is also an excellent fuel food.

Since 1923 there has been a legal standard of identity for butter that enters into Inter-state commerce of the United States. According to federal law, butter must be made exclusively from milk or cream and contain not less than 80 per cent by weight of milk fat. Some butter contains not less than 82 per cent by weight of milk fat.

MASS ADOPTION

TORONTO—(AP)—Application of a Toronto church to "adopt" an entire family of European refugees was refused by federal officials.

EN LETTER ELLS GARNER OF BARE SPOTS

President Asked To Something About Lack Of Grass

ASHINGTON, July 7.—(AP)—This is an open letter to Vice-President John E. Garner.

Dear Mr. Vice-President:

More than a year ago you looked the forlorn bare patches under the imposing White House trees and announced you could grow grass there.

The president announced he would be happy if you would do so. You were sent to Uvalde for a couple of sacks of fine Texas shade-growing grass.

Just about the time it arrived, someone in the White House gardening department pleaded for another chance. Rumor has it that it was Mr.

Roosevelt who granted the reprieve.

Anyhow—

Your grass arrived and you gave it away—one sack to Senator Hiram

Johnson, Republican, California, and the other to a friend who was a newsman.

Confidentially, one sack was successful. The other wasn't. You'll have to figure out which.

However—

Have you noticed the lawn at the executive mansion there?

There is a bald spot 30 feet wide under the elm at the back east gate, and there's one fully 50 feet wide near the front east gate.

Things along the west gate area—where you always go in—are in fair shape, but have you noticed they keep a fine spray going nearly all the time?

Things are barren back by the tennis court too, but it has been said that the grass never recovered from the beating it took when Herbert Hoover exercised his medicine ball cabinet there.

Your hotel is just two blocks away,

Mr. Vice-President. You ought to take a look for yourself.

10 ARRESTED ON FRAUD CHARGES

Held For Bribery, Fee-Splitting And Evading Sales Tax

NEW YORK, July 7.—(AP)—Investigation of alleged sales tax frauds, blamed by Comptroller Joseph D. McGrath for the loss of from $50,000 to $100,000, early today led to the arrest of 10 men, six of them city employees, on charges ranging from bribery to tax evasion conspiracy and fee-splitting.

The arrests followed all-night questioning of 30 city employees and various business men on clues furnished by months of inquiry by McGrath and police into reported irregularities in the emergency division of the department of finance.

At the night-long inquisition ended, McGrath announced that more than 20 city employees had been suspended or would be suspended "within 24 hours."

Faced by investigators, 38 city employees underwent close questioning through the night, and 12 business men who had been subpoenaed were released only to be recalled for questioning later in the morning.

A chief investigator for the division charged with bribery and three other employees were charged with attempting bribery. An accountant of the business tax division was charged with attempting to aid in evasion of the city sales tax, and another defendant, an assistant, was accused of getting a few cents with two outside accountants in connection with a refund of sales tax returns for an electrical concern. Two public accountants were charged with having committed felonies, and two other persons were arrested of being "runners" illegally conducting legal business for a fee.

MAY USE NEW PLAN TO RAISE SQUALUS

PORTRUSH, N. H., July 7.—(AP)—Officers in charge of salvaging the sunken submarine Squalus, temporary tomb of 26 men, said today the mishap which delayed lifting of the stricken craft might necessitate a change of method.

That they explained would mean drawing all three of the chains necessary to attach five pontoons to the flooded after section beneath the stern at the same time instead of separately. Floating lines forced the salvage workmen to use two pontoons already sent down. Wire ropes became entangled between a massive chain slung and the hull of the Squalus.

In any event, the officers said, the one-chain would delay by two or three days the raising of the sub, which went down in 40 fathoms 15 miles off Portsmouth on May 23.

A 100-ton floating dock was held by the rescue officers for four hours, and then a cable from a farmhouse and reached the top of the quartz wall.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., July 7.—(AP)—After spending an hour and a half in the site of an abandoned quarry 100 feet above the ground, Lt. Stu Kanz, Jr., a corporal, took a rope and a pulley and hauled the 100-ton dock up.

Leaving a gap of 10 feet, the men attempted to haul the dock up steep steps. He was about 15 feet of the way up when the cable broke and the dock fell, causing a 100-foot hole in the side of the quarry.

A 100-ton floating dock was held by the rescue officers for four hours, and then a cable from a farmhouse and reached the top of the quartz wall.

AIR MONOPOLY TO BE BARRED, RYAN ASSERTS

Says Civil Aeronautics Authority Will Exercise Powers

LOS ANGELES, July 7.—(AP)—Oswald Ryan, a member of the civil aeronautics authority, said today the authority will block any monopolistic control of air transportation in this country.

Ryan said in a speech before the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce that concern has been expressed recently "by some outstanding friends of American aviation as a result of rumored plans of important interests to acquire monopolistic control of air transportation through mergers and consolidations and the acquisition of certificates for new air routes."

"No evidence on this point has thus far reached the civil aeronautics authority," he added, "but should any attempt be made toward monopolistic control against the public interest, the authority will exercise the ample powers which have been delegated to us by congress to deal with the situation."

Ryan said that in passing on applications for approval of mergers and consolidations and in deciding applications for new routes, the CAA "will consider that the public interest requires competition to the extent necessary to insure the sound development of a transportation system adequate to the public needs."

"The authority will not give its approval to any proposed consolidation, merger or acquisition of control which would result in creating a monopoly or in restraining competition to the injury of another air carrier not a party to the transaction," he asserted. "The act does not condemn all mergers and consolidations. It condemns those which are found to be against the public interest. Each case presented will be decided upon the facts in that particular case."

They explained would mean drawing all three of the chains necessary to attach five pontoons to the flooded after section beneath the stern at the same time instead of separately.

Floating lines forced the salvage workmen to use two pontoons already sent down. Wire ropes became entangled between a massive chain slung and the hull of the Squalus.

An account of the business tax division was charged to a conspiracy to aid an evasion of the city sales tax, and another departmental account was charged of keeping a fee in the public accountants in connection with an attempt to collect tax returns for a political contribution. The public accountants were charged with having received a fee and two other persons were accused of being business legally soliciting legal business for a fee.

YOUTH RESCUED FROM STEEP, ROCKY WELL

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., July 1.—(AP)—After a long and hard climb of an abandoned quarry 100 feet above the ground, 15-year-old Steve Karp, Jr., escaped a 100-foot drop and was hauled to safety by a group of men who had come to the scene to save the steep, rocky cliff.

He was 100 feet from the bottom of the quarry when he fell, and the men who had come to the scene to save him had to climb down a steep embankment. He was reported resting comfortable Friday morning.

A 15-year-old boy, who was the son of a man who had been a farm boy and had never seen the top of the quarry, was in the quarry.

He was found by a group of men who had come to the scene to save him.

They explained he had been drawn all three of the chains necessary to attach five pontoons to the divided after section beneath the stern at the same time instead of separately.

Fractured lines forced the salvage workmen to raise two pontoons already sent down. Wire ropes became entangled between a massive chain sling and the hull of the ship.

In any event, the officers said, the ship would delay by two or three days the raising of the ship, which went down in 40 fathoms 15 miles off Portsmouth on May 23.

DISMISSED TEACHER WILL COLLECT PAY

BATON ROUGE, La., July 7 (AP)—L. A. Sims, dismissed from the faculty of Louisiana State Normal college, was credited today with having won his year-long fight to collect from the state board of education. James H. Morrison, counsel for Sims, who said he was fired on political grounds, announced President H. H. White of the board told him of the decision to pay the salary of the teacher dismissed before the 1938-39 season began.

When Sims was dropped from the faculty in August, 1938, his son, Joe Arthur Sims, was managing the campaign of his law partner, Morrison, in the Sixth congressional district race. Dr. J. K. Gottsch was elected.

Sims had a contract to teach at the college from September, 1938, to July, 1939.

The Southern Area of the CIO, here and Southern S.A.C., spent the college after hearing charges growing out of Sims' dismissal.
